Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)

From the Desk of Rev. Msgr. Hugh J. Corrigan:

This parable is probably referring to the rejection of the new Christian church by the Jewish people. The Gospel of Luke was written fifty years after the resurrection and it was evident that 95% of his own people had not accepted Him as the Messiah, much less as the Son of God. Luke's Gospel is written for the Gentiles. "And people will come from the east and west and from the north and south and will recline at table in the Kingdom of God. For behold some are last who will be first and some are first who will be last first".

How would we apply the parable to today? I immediately think of our worldwide refugee problem.

COLLECTION: the collection for last Sunday August 14, 2016 was $3,099.

The second collection next Sunday, August 28th will be our monthly collection to help with our Church Property Insurance.

Thank you to the Salvadorian Community who donated $2,072 from their Salvador del Mundo feast.

Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time: As we gather for today's celebration, we recall that through our Baptism God has invited us to the eternal kingdom. While the question that we hear in today's Gospel is about how many will be saved, for us the better question should be, "Will I be saved?" Let us pray today through this celebration that we might receive the grace and the will to do what God requires of us in this life.

First Reading: Isaiah 66:18-21(page 29) – all the nations make their way to Jerusalem, they bring offerings in gratitude for all God's blessings.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 117 (page 29-30) - "Go out to all the world and tell the Good News!"

Second Reading Hebrews 12:5-7(page 30) – we are taught about divine discipline, God disciplines us so that we may enjoy union with God.

Gospel: Luke 13:22-30 (page 30) –Jesus portrays the way of discipleship as the narrow gate that is the only entrance into the kingdom of God.
